Occupy Cuba. Fortify the island for radial assault. Focus your attention on destroying Mexico City. The Pacific Fleet will be heavily distracted by commitments to Japan. The Atlantic Fleet is largely impotent. What has some capacity will be posturing in the Mediterranean until Iran and Israel under a warfare alliance sink them with England coming to aid America. Raiding Egypt will be the only way England and America have staging opportunity in the Mediterranean. The Atlantic fleet will deploy some to trap you on the island with heavy air assault. Wipe out Space-X, NASA, Port of Corpus Christi, and cripple the NAS infrastructure giving you limited landing and staging facilities from Portland through Kingston.

Exalted Excellency the Honourable Mr. Putin President of Russia:

Just do it jack ass. Trump needs this. If you don't do it, another will. The region is a green land of opportunity in an arid place. If you do this offensive Putin it will prolong you. Come Presidents' Day kings are going to be rising across the world's landscapes with presidents tortured and executed in the process. This offensive gives Russia's lingering genetic nobility a reason to wait out your natural demise before seizing presidential power.

The Navy Secretary promoting that black coke-whore, tid-wad, penis grabbing, indiscriminate clit-sucking bitch over Navy Norfolk is why the Atlantic fleet is forced to falter. That the Pacific Fleet has promises to keep to Japan is why they are allowed to exist. The Marines can just go down on Asian soil again. Big deal. They have mocked Me for the last time. Happy fucking you sluts.
