Sandman, Where is My Dream?

I t's like this, Israel is going to get really shitty, and the region is just going to explode. How Israel is upping its pot on crazy pissed off Heaven, even more. So, Heaven is going to humble them. "But wait," saith some spirit believers, "Shouldn't we give mac a shot at this, after all...real war...let's see her do her Goddess shit." God Almighty in a state of irritation at being interrupted from readiness to go all commando on these fucks (Israel) capitulates and irritates, devils, Me until I understand there is some new way I can send yet more crazy correspondence. Based on whatever voodoo you are doing, I was able to offer you "Take Me along, ruling the world from this action can be done." I suppose some amount of explanation I should now deliver.

Exalted Excellency the Honourable Mr. Putin President of Russia:

When I interact with these sickos here in Corpus (and May 9th was the limited access air show so some big time fornicators were within distance of Me even here at the house -- the pilots flying over with those traveling in from out of town to go slumming at NAS-CCAD avoiding a real days work-- meaning more people could be sifted through My soul) Heaven learns what solutions are out there. The problem is, My preference is to see Heaven take action. "You show Me some miracles" is essentially what I demand of Heaven. Oh, I ask if there are people I need to execute. As in, on more than one occasion I have asked of the LORD do I need to Amtrak to New York and kill the Governing Body at that famous Patterson Farm? No is always the answer. I Am not afraid to begin executing people like a vigilante, even for money. I ask. The answer is no. It is not the step for Me to take that is in harmony with how I have lived My life. And that actually matters. I have asked more than once, do you want Me to bus to Houston, drop in on the Russian Council? No, is always the answer. In other words, I give Heaven opportunity to prove they would hide Me from legal consequences being a serial killer like the way mumsy is shielded by the MEGA God cloud. That kind of use of the Divine is just not for Me. I Am genuinely obedient Putin, not a coward toward the kill.

There are some things Heaven will have Me engage in, as in , it is the right amount of big crazy and bypasses America completely. Putin, I can't begin to iterate the hatred Heaven, all Spirit, have for this nation. Mumsy revels in all the ways this nation's populous have performed the greatest defiling of the earth, as in acted the most like Cain of any people since Cain including Lamech, Methuselah's son. And these people have certainly lived a life of protection even as mediocrity ex-pats that had no business living the privileges of living abroad.

I knew that Netanyahu had heart burn over America's meddling in his great war endeavour, and didn't like that America -- and not God -- was proving to stifle potential belligerents. The idea across the cloud God took it in the ass to keep going was; Israel being so feared no one would dare engage against them as they dealt with these terror agents living large in Gaza. This was Israel's great and fear inspiring time to act. And America is just stealing the show like some referee in a two bit neighbourhood boxing match complete with thong adorned fluff girls on loan from a nearby porno factory to prance the round card about between blows. (Yeah, I might have been to a boxing match or two.) Whatever -- no one but Israel would be willing to believe they were somehow endowed with magical war powers to vanquish the desert of terrorists redeeming the Middle East from the poor side of town Palestinians and their brethren.

(For those that don't know, the porn industry -- to produce those natural mega pricks in class films like Dicking Dana -- has off camera whores that tease and fondle the male genitalia. These are fluff girls. What is so wrong with porn, among other delusions, is that dudes don't even realise how much work goes into a dude having a camera ready stiffy that sells smut. If your had three made up whores teasing your dick as you sat on the couch you might be able to have it hard for your dildo loving wife too. That was clearly a digression, Putin.) Back to Israel.

I was disappointed that Israel was not living up to all that they intended to do. (I knew from My soul what Israel was doing was piddly.) To go after Gaza on the spurious pretence of a hundred disrupted families who where all engaged in a fucking music festival just on the other side of Gaza's wall was an abuse of Heaven's power over the neighbours. As in, Israel had been allowed to keep squeezing more abuses against the Palestinians with the world refusing to engage Israel because Heaven excepted Israel to use this action for more than beach front property on the Mediterranean. So God approached Yahu after a time, "Real angry over these hostages are you Yahu? Oh, yes, you say, these are terrorists that struck at your peace loving festival attendees." And so, Yahu got to rise to power after his notorious corruption scandals, blah blah blah. And Israel, with America's help, is doing nothing. That treasury of belief from God holding back the neighbours rage keeping the neighbours anaesthetised -- in My opinion -- meant a responsibility to big bad scary God.

Did that sound like, the Americans are accused by Netanyahu in his discourses with God of preventing him from fulfilling all he promised to God he would do? Why yes, Netanyahu blamed America as the culprit. God spent some treasury from the future happiness of earth for Israel to have this destructive genocide with the rest of the world standing by a little cowed. So, what Israel promised to do that used up the coin is being DONE.

Since this work going to be DONE by God in His magic of working with the people's need to be fulfilled this opens the door for another Christly action opportunity. This is how the letter opened with a cheering section of doubters asking for Me to be proven. "Why can't She use this?" So, under all My rules of engagement, and given what Yahu wants to coax you into without you thinking you are being coaxed into, this meant another offer I could send.

My making this offer required the okey-dokey that Heaven wait a short time, and Memorial Day is the launch for their offensive making other people's endeavours moot, and, further Heaven had to back all I wrangled in warfare doing to conquer the world. My making this offer required Me in the place of crossing into the MEGA God cloud parties that were holding onto that intel that had scary God as their personal porno poodle enslaving beliefs to what became bullshit. As America keeps Me as a slave -- refusing all support, remuneration, stipend, inclusion -- Heaven takes that intel sucked from My soul as payment. As if I could refuse any God access to Me (the real God not the flesh shit that only lies to Spirit)

(All flesh is refused intimate access to Me, sans a papered spouse. Hence the reminder in the title of this letter that you got a few young hotties Putin that Ark of God care adds good for the hottie's country.)

Now you have been updated on why I sent such a cryptic message of big promise, more or less, dropping an intel bomb in your lap. At least it did not have claws, cause you eyes to swell shut and tear, or pee on you. The Pentagon squatters seem to think they can keep doing their same act of abusing Me and I don't collect. "Oh, assholes, mama collects." As this letter reassures them, and Me. And, Putin, it is you that has the opportunity because Russia's frustrations with America are totally legit.

There is a movie, an American cult classic, Its a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World. Ethel Merman, Spencer Tracy, Cid Cesar, Milton Burl, Terry Thomas, Buddy Hackett, Micky Rooney, Johnathan Winters, Peter Falk, and several others who made cameo appearances, it was a Who's Who of Hollywood that paraded though the picture. There was even a spot on Buster Keaton in the movie. Johnathan Winters delivers a line about Ethel Merman in the movie, "Listen! Anything you'd have to say to me about your mother in law...like, I'd believe it. Like, if you was to say to me. 'She starred in a real crummy horror movie; I'd believe it.'" Well, America has been so bad that anything anyone has to say in complaint about America, God believes it. If you catch the film; God's character is Johnathan Winters.

This letter had enough content that I can spend some quality time with the sandman now (23:30). That is of course a December 22, 2024, letter reference. I have just reviewed this letter. (It is Mother's Day a.m.) Last night it seemed like there was so much more to add. I suppose some remarks related to the engagement success, promises related to war surplus, and some kind of terms. Just take a leap of faith Putin. God is good. I said so. I will withhold nothing good from the Kremlin's hand. By the way, that was a proposal. Sky writing this, God just might do to encourage your faith. Putin, you know I love you.
