Only I Am Shitty Enough!

The point of being a human, and not mapped to God Almighty, is that you do not want to do favours for God. That you did a favour for God is why you need My protection. It is Me that goes about satisfying Myself, and that brings about favours to God. For you to receive favours from Me... we are past that point now Putin. Damn it! I would give you a swift kick in the ass for that with a steel toed boot, but, ah ha, a solution exists. For the reader who did not understand; Putin asked, as a result of My last letter, what he receives for doing a favour for God.

Exalted Excellency the Honourable Mr. Putin President of Russia:

Like many of My letters, Putin, this one will cover a few topics in detail leaving the pleasanter issues undiscussed, as they are details that have relatively standardised, State supported solutions. For helping God Putin, what you are required to do is pick a side. I Am going to dictate to you what to pick to further your living legacy and rule the world, ultimately, at obedience end. You have until Christmas 2025, Putin. Steinmeier with the OWG has likewise; first come first served. Financial support of Me with contracts and citizenship constitutes valuable consideration for contracting with Me binding Heaven.

(A digression: I Am in the process of designing My stationary watermark, and I shrunk My header logo. I decided the watermark ring is too skinny. It needs fascination too.)

Putin, what is explained in this letter is happening with or without you. Include Me and you are the individual credited and directly benefiting from ruling the world. Without Me, it is slightly messier; there are fewer survivors; there is not king/god (you) ruling over several different cultures settling disputes across borders; there is not a common willingness to trade among the people. The difference between this and the OWG is the OWG is the entity that owns the earth with limiting peoples activities so only decent, non-perversion engaged people inhabit the earth. (Prayers of heart are turned over to the Lamb for OWG.) With you as king/god this places you as the individual that, if people are willing to cooperate with you, they prosper. The number of people at worlds end, as it were, under this scheme of you serving God is not exactly the issue. I suspect a billion would remain on the planet. We would ultimately be looking at a second wipe out at your death after being very old and satisfied with days.

Essentially you are qualified to run out the time of this system of things interrupting the wipe-out. The pathway is: on Russia's split keep the central region for yourself. Include Iran, seize oil markets with a monopoly pumping oil for essential oil demand quantity only holing the barrel price just above 200. (Not everyone should have a car to begin with. Drive up demand for public transportation choking out household car use to one operating vehicle per day. Many gas stations need to close.) Give Saudi free rein to exterminate undesirables. Just let them have the Muslim shit for a while. That will fade out as the populous dwindles. (Egypt will be subduing the region as well.) Honour Egypt's work to control resources in Africa and grow trading through them. Let Asia exterminate itself. Japan, Korea and China will have a brutal row for several decades. India and Pakistan are irrelevant. End all dependance/association with their data and service industries. Seize North America after winning governorship over Texas squeezing out Germany and Saudi. South America will be begging for your leadership. Seize the mineral rights and ownership of all lands, lease back. Your central Russian alliance will grow West first as you reclaim lands from the dead bodies and pollution left behind from the overreaching disputes of France and Germany. The remaining Asian populous will contribute largely to their own welfare settling themselves with remote feudal lords and little trading engagements or interaction.

What is the catch? Well, you need Me stabilising your warfare endeavours practicing the consequences for gross disobedience to no-fornication. So, I shall elaborate. A prostitute can turn five tricks a day. This should earn her five hundred dollars each day. When a brothel -- hospitals or churches are likely brothel locations -- becomes a classic comfort station of WWII fame, I burn the entire place to the ground with all occupants. I work enforcing the military protocols that when gross abuses are happening everyone is sent to Hell in the fire. My ministry is still public; with instruction to improve soldier performance. And, they will improve driving the success of your king/godship. Asia you will eventually enslave and Japan will prosper provided they are enforcing fisheries protection with ocean restoration. Cuba is likewise; Atlantic side.

I anticipated this letter being far longer. Nope. Oh, without Me your natural life is cut short. Other infractions to warfare disciple are dealt with likewise the brothel scenario. Sinking naval vessels with all hands for gross abuses, with some public executions of the notorious will happen weekly early on; with the shitty improving how they keep their shit secret. Too many join in and it becomes public, the whole is destroyed due to the sloppy joe.
